Robins Denies He Told 'Reds' of U. S. Support

BOSTON, March 25.—Colonel Raymond Robins, formerly head of the Red Cross mission to Russia, to-day denounced as "totally faise" statements of Herman Montague Donner before the National Civic Federation in New York yesterday to the effect that Robins made a secret trip to Murmansk and created the impression there that the American government supported the Bolsheviki.

In a letter to V. Everitt Macy, of New York, president of the National Civic Federation, Colonel Robins said he had never before heard of Mr. Donner, adding, "The entire substance of his statement, in so far as it refers to my activities in Russia, is totally false."

The letter calls usen the false."
